The latest sartorial sensation is the "camouflage" or "chameleon" collar, mottled like a tropic lizard. Georges wore this bit of red, gold. purple, yellow, pink and green band of silk about his Gallic neck, and the shirt that went with the collar looked like an elder brother to it. "Um-m-m-m" gurgled Hype Igoe, the flyweight champion dresser of the Roaring Forties, as he dashed away to his pet haberdashery.
